ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges.

The Troy Conference Academy at Poulney is now under quarantine owing to several cases of measles.

The Rev. C. W. Jackson, pastor of the Baptist church at Bellows Falls, was presented Sunday morning with a purse containing $67.

Miss Minnie Edith Williams of Montpelier is the first woman in Vermont to be granted an operator's license on an automobile.

Albert Atwood, a Bennington painter, who fell some months ago, suffering a bad compound fracture of one ankle, recently underwent an operation for the amputation of the lower part of the leg.

Mrs. Sweet, of Sutton, Que., the owner of the copper mine in Wolcott, has a civil engineer there and will locate the copper vein and sink a new shaft, the old one having caved in, and probably will resume work mining copper.

At the state convention of the Foresters of America, to be held in Bennington May 18, it is expected that each court in the state will be represented by three delegates. Nearly all the grand lodge officers have promised to be present.

Professor C. H. Willey has tendered his resignation to the board of Hardwick academy trustees, the same to take effect at the close of the present school year. During the two years that Mr. Willey has been at the head of Hardwick Academy he has done excellent work, and has won a large number of friends.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson of Warren died April 20 from the effects of poison which she got from a ball of yarn while playing with it. The yarn had been wound around some potash used for coloring, and the child ate it. As soon as it was discovered that she had eaten a doctor called, but the child died in a few hours.

The Passumpsic Fiber Leather Co., whose large plant was destroyed by fire last December, is rebuilding on a larger scale, and will be ready for business in September. The new mill will be absolutely fireproof, being constructed of crushed stone and cement. This is believed to be the first building of this kind to be constructed in the state, and 1,000 tons of crushed stone and 600 barrels of cement will be used in the walls and floors. When completed a force of twenty men will be employed night and day, and the daily product will be eight tons of leather board.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chase in Bristol was the scene of a very pleasant occasion Wednesday afternoon when several of the elderly friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. John Tatro assembled to assist them in celebrating the 50th anniversary of their wedding. They left several useful and pretty presents, besides cash of quite an amount. Four of the guests have

A WONDERFUL OFFER

We want to do our utmost to comfort all sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles, as we are convinced, that Dr. Kennedy's Calicura Solvent will cure these dangerous troubles.

Calicura Solvent's wonderful power to cure diseases of the kidneys and bladder is the happy result of the efforts of that skilled physician and surgeon, Dr. David Kennedy, to make a medicine that would dissolve and expel from the system, stone, gravel and uric acid. In this way, Calicura Solvent not only cures the disease but also removes all irritating causes. It is not a patent medicine, but a prescription used by Dr. Kennedy in his large private practice with unflinching success.

To show our great confidence in this scientific remedy, we make this wonderful offer, - to return your money if it does not cure. Try it at our expense; it will make you well. Write The Calicura Co., Kingston, N. Y., for a free treatment bottle.

passed the 80th year of their age. The aggregate age of the guests, 13 in number, was 1,125 years. Mrs. Chase presided at the organ, while the guests sang many of the old time hymns.

O. V. Mosley of Eden is the owner of a very old lantern. He thinks there is no other in Vermont and possibly not in the United States like it. It was taken by his great grandfather, who assisted Col. Ethan Allen in the capture of Fort Ticonderoga, and has been in the family ever since then. It came into his father's possession about fifty years ago, at a cost of $140. It has a very thick glass globe, shaped like an onion, and is said to be of sufficient toughness to drive an ordinary board nail. It was made to burn a candle, and is in good condition, despite its old age, more than 130 years.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble and keep them constantly on hand since, as I find they have no equal." The Red Cross Pharmacy guarantees them at 50c.
